

Bookable study space: Terms of Use

Have your booking confirmation email ready to show staff or the Covid Saint.

You must have a booking in your own name, you can't use someone else's reservation.

Treat other students and staff with respect and kindness.

Cleaning is essential between sessions, if you have booked concurrent sessions, you will need to leave the room to allow for this.

Leave your study space clean, take all belongings and any rubbish with you.

If you have any questions, talk to the Covid Saint or Janitor in the building, or contact the Library: library@st-andrews.ac.uk or 01334 462331.
